OUK CHRISTMAS BAZAAR November 19 THIS SATURDAY!

Come, shop, bring a friend (or two!), have lunch, take care of your Christmas baking, bid on a gift at the Silent Auction, get some new books to read and puzzles to put together over the holidays. Something for everyone!

If baking really is therapy, help us prove it by bringing in your goodie, with ingredients identified, to the church Friday, November 18, for sale in the bazaar!

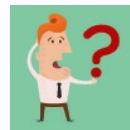

Meat Pies Now Available - Quantities are very limited!

Tourtières, Chicken Pot Pies, and Vegetarian Chili are now available in the Hall on Sundays, or at the office through the week. The cost is $25 for a family-size pie and $8 for the Chili. Please bring your own bag if possible, and if you have any spare bags, please consider donating them to the Bazaar.

Please note: our brand-new debit machine

Ask and you shall receive ... an answer!

Sunday November 20 is our Ask the Minister service.

What's this all about? Glad you asked! On November 20 Rev. Eric will be opening the Ask the Minister box and answering your questions, without preparation. How can you participate? Fill out one of the coloured cards with your question, or email the office and your question will be put in the box. Ask and you shall receive, knock and we'll see how many doors we can open!

A member of OUC is looking for some assistance with a computer issue. If you are able to volunteer a little time to help, please contact Kim in the office for details (orleansunited@rogers.com, 613-837-4321). Thank you!

We invite you to bring new socks, mittens, winter hats, feminine products, small shampoo, soap, toothpaste and toothbrushes for White Gift Sunday, which occurs on the first Sunday of Advent, November 27. The beneficiaries of all these donations will be Centre 507 folk, for whom even the smallest of gifts fulfills a large need.

If you would like to donate a poinsettia in memory of loved ones, or in celebration of family and friends, contact Kim in the Office (orleansunited@rogers.com, 613-837-4321), then bring your plant in between December 12 & 16. We will publish a list of remembrances in our December 18 bulletin.

An OUC friend told me that caring for her mom at home during the last week of life was the most spiritual experience she has ever had. Yet caring for a dying loved one is one of the most difficult things we can do. I find that intentionally surrounding the loved one with God's love spreads that feeling of love to me and eventually fills the room. Sometimes the best gifts come from the most difficult, trying times. It is amazing that there can be joy and thanksgiving in so much sorrow.

OUC has a Prayer Chain!

For many years now, OUC has offered a prayer ministry. You can request that the members of the prayer team pray for you, for your loved one, or for a particular local or global concern. All prayer requests are shared among the group confidentially. You are invited to send your prayer request directly to ouc.prayersforall@rogers.com, an email monitored by only one CST member. For more information, please contact the office.
